

Man Up Campout FAQ

Answers to your common questions

What if I don't know anyone?

No problem! This is a great chance to meet new people. You will be assigned to a group and you will spend a lot of time together at the campout. You will also be assigned a group leader who will be in contact with you. You will get to know the guys in your group well throughout the weekend.

What will I need to bring?

Once you have signed up we will send you a detailed list. But to give you an idea; you will need clothes (including clothes for paintball), a sleeping bag, food, a chair, a backpack or duffle bag, and camp gear.

What time?

Your group captain will coordinate rides. You will arrive around 5 or 6 pm on Friday (it's about an hour from Bright, IN). Then we will leave around 12 - 1 pm on Sunday.

What will we actually be doing?

We have some awesome activities planned (paintball, trap shooting, etc). We'll be camping in tents. There will be an awesome band, you'll hear some messages from great speakers. There will be great food. You'll make some of your own food with your group (you can make it over the fire). We'll be on beautiful property. It's a great way to unwind, grow as a man, and simply get away for the weekend.

What if I don't have camping gear?

Your group leader will coordinate with your group to make sure everyone has the right gear. As a group, you will coordinate tents, meals, gear, etc.

What if the weather doesn't cooperate?

The campout is called "ManUp!" for a reason. Be prepared for rain or shine. We are a go either way.

Do I have to be there the whole time?

Yes. We need you to make sure you can be there the whole time before you sign up.

What if I sign up and now I can't make it?

Tickets are non-refundable. If we're at capacity, we'll give your spot to someone else.

No cell phones? What if there is an emergency at home?

We'll give you a cell phone number your family can call to reach you if there is an emergency. We will get an emergency contact number from you.

Do I have to be a Christian to attend?

You do not. All are welcome. In fact, if you invite a friend who is either a non-Christian or has fallen away from the church; we'll actually cover his ticket. E-mail us at manupcampout@gmail.com for more info.

Do I have to go to Bright Church?

Nope. Whatever your story is, you are welcome here.
